ALMIGHTY and everlasting God, who hatest nothing that thou hast made, and dost forgive the sins of all them that are penitent: Create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we worthily lamenting our sins, and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain of thee, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

six verses of the Gospel of Mark's wilderness experience move us from Jesus' baptism with descending dove and voice from the heaven to forty days in the wilderness (with wild beasts and angels) to the arrest of John and Jesus' proclamation to Galilee of good news.

Mission Statement:

To build a Christ-centered, open-minded community of worshippers that are caring, loving, sharing & family oriented. Our community of worshippers will be alert to changing needs, and committed to involvement in worship, education, outreach and communication.

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday; we admit that. But this first Sunday is when many people become aware of the season. If there are rituals to be adopted, they will often begin today. So, we are on the brink again, or still, or even for the first time, of the journey. That's why we begin with promise; we begin with covenant.

Church Attendance Rules

Vulnerable persons (over the age of 60, or at risk due to an underlying medical condition), are at a greater risk to their health and life if they contract COVID 19. If you are a vulnerable person, carefully consider if you should attend an in-person worship service.

You must register prior to attendance (to register, call Peter Stevenson at 753-8579), and by so doing, accept and agree to abide by these rules and other directions given to you by parish authorities.

Attendance is at your own risk.

Maintain physical distancing of 6 feet or more with all outside our household.

Use hand sanitizers provided before taking your seat.

Sit only in spaces designated by the parish

Masks are mandatory except for those under the age of 5 and those with physical or mental conditions that prevent the wearing of a mask. Masks may be removed while you are seated or when receiving Communion.

Singing with Mask allowed. No physical touching with other attendees other than those in your bubble.

We will be conducting our Annual General Meeting on Sunday March 28th,2021. This Sunday will also be Palm Sunday. We will be electing new members of the Vestry to replace those who are rotating off. We would like to ask leaders of all Church committees to please submit your annual reports by March 16th so that the AGM booklets can be prepared in a timely manner.Thank you.
