Mission Statement:

To build a Christ-centered, open-minded community of worshippers that are caring, loving, sharing & family oriented. Our community of worshippers will be alert to changing needs, and committed to involvement in worship, education, outreach and communication.

Parables of Sowers and seeds may seem quaint, but in the history of art these very images were much beloved. The emergence of the seed in its sequenced growth is like the Kingdom of God in this sense: It grows mysteriously of its own accord and appears on God's timetable (not yours or mine). Whatever the Kingdom of God is, it is indeed like a seed that grounds our hope that eventually things can change. The moral universe has a bending arc to point you toward it. That kind of hope can get you through a difficult patch. And so even Jesus' seedy kingdom sounds good enough to people like us.
